

2 October 2013

St Vincent de Paul Society Social Justice in the Pub

In support of Anti-Poverty Week the St Vincent de Paul Society will host a Social Justice in the Pub event at the Bank Hotel, Newtown on Wednesday 16 October with special guest Professor Julian Disney, Chair of the Australian Press Council, Anti-Poverty Week and the National Affordable Housing Summit; and Director, Social Justice Project, UNSW. Professor Disney will be speaking on the topic of poverty in Australia today and will ask the question, is Australia a lucky country for everyone?

The event is part of a series of social justice talks being held across the State and provides an opportunity for local communities to come together to discuss social justice issues and their impacts.

All community members and media are invited to attend.

Date: Wednesday 16 October, 7.30pm

Venue: Bank Hotel, 324 King St, Newtown NSW

Speaker: Dr Julian Disney, Chair of the Australian Press Council, Anti-Poverty Week and the National Affordable Housing Summit; and Director, Social Justice Project, UNSW.

Topic: Poverty in Australia: A lucky country for everyone?

Anti-Poverty Week aims to strengthen public understanding of the causes and consequences of poverty and hardship, and encourage communities to get involved with activities that highlight the issues and devastating effects of poverty in Australia and overseas.

Media Contact: Yolanda Saiz | 0417 446 430 | yolanda.saiz@vinnies.org.au