

SOCIAL MEDIA – TERMS OF USE

The St Vincent de Paul Society embraces online communities and encourages thoughtful and respectful debate and conversation. Our social media platforms are moderated in accordance with the following terms of use.

We will remove posts which:

- Are of an offensive or discriminatory nature. This includes being offensive, humiliating or intimidating based on:
 - race, ethnicity, nationality or physical characteristics
 - gender or sexual orientation
 - religion or non-religious viewpoints
 - political opinion
 - socio-economic status
 - age
 - physical, mental or intellectual disability/impairment
- Contravene copyright, defamation or any other laws
- Reveal personal details or private information about any person
- Would be reasonably classified as 'adult' and restricted accordingly (such as pornography or graphic violence)
- Use excessively coarse language
- Could reasonably be considered trolling. Trolling is posting content of a deliberately inflammatory nature. Social media sites usually have a mechanism to report such behaviour and we encourage you to do so
- Attack other users
- We believe are by someone impersonating someone else

We reserve the right to make judgement calls on any of the above. For example, if a post is offensive or if coarse language is excessive.

If a person continues to post content that contravenes our terms of use, we reserve the right to block the offending users.

The St Vincent de Paul Society takes no responsibility for comments left by others on our Facebook page or other social media channels.
