Providing a hand up to a safer life

A client assisted in the Brisbane area wrote to us about the help she received when she needed it most.

"I am writing to say thank you. My children and I had to escape domestic violence, fleeing for our lives and leaving everything behind. St Vincent de Paul Society came to our rescue.

We arrived at a church with the clothes we were wearing and two plastic bags of clothing. Vinnies provided us with everything we needed. We now have a lovely little house to call home. It is with tears in my eyes that I write to you today, on a borrowed computer and sitting at my donated desk."

Consider a gift to Vinnies in your Will

Imagine the lives you could change with a gift to Vinnies in your Will

The difference you can make

Your gift, regardless of size, will make a difference.

- > $1,000 could provide a woman and child escaping domestic violence with meals and somewhere safe to sleep for a month.
- > $10,000 can provide training for adults to enter the workforce and gain their independence.
- > $100,000 can help purchase transitional accommodation, as well as access to support programs so people can rebuild their lives.

A gift in your Will means we can continue to be there to help the disadvantaged and those in need in your community.

Why gifts in Wills matter

The St Vincent de Paul Society first began helping Queenslanders in 1894, and we've been active in the community ever since. Our Vincentians and volunteers help more than 280,000 people every year. A gift in your Will helps ensure that we can continue to be there for future generations in need.

The work of our Vincentians and volunteers relies entirely upon the generosity of people like you.

Once you've taken care of your family, please consider leaving a small portion of your estate as a gift to the St Vincent de Paul Society.

Any size or kind of gift, large or small, improves lives for the better – today and into the future.

How we can help you

Each of us can make a difference with a charitable gift in our Will

We can ...

- > Provide you with a free and useful booklet "A Personal Record" to store your important information.
- > Send you helpful information on how to make or update your Will as well as how to leave a gift in your Will.
- > Give you as much choice as we can about where you can direct your gift to. While some like to leave a gift to a particular region or service, we welcome gifts that are left to the Society unconditionally. This allows us to direct gifts to the areas of greatest need, which changes on a continual basis.
- > Find you a solicitor to prepare your simple Will, free of charge, when you have decided to leave a gift to the Society.
- > Supply you with a codicil and instructions to amend your existing Will and include a gift to the Society.
