Love one another as I have loved you.

– John 13:34

Jesus asks us to love each other, no matter what. We are all different, but God loves us equally and expects us to love each other equally too. In Vinnies we do not judge people and love them unconditionally.

Love the poor. Honour them, my children, as you would honour Christ himself.

– St Louise de Marillac

St Louise de Marillac was St Vincent de Paul's best friend and mentor. She helped him see that the poor are our equals, our brothers and sisters.

Be kind and love, for love is your first gift to the poor.

– Blessed Rosalie Rendu

Rosalie Rendu was a mentor for Frederic Ozanam and the first Vinnies Conference. She helped them see, love and respect each individual poor person.

Let us do without hesitation whatever good lies at our hands.

– Blessed Frederic Ozanam

Frederic Ozanam was 19 when he and a group of his friends started the St Vincent de Paul Society. They wanted to put their faith into action.

St Vincent de Paul died a few hundred years before Vinnies started, but Frederic and his friends chose to name the organisation after him because he was such an inspiring example of love and respect for the poor.

Let us love God by the sweat of our brow and the work of our hands.

– St Vincent de Paul
