Vinnies holds huge carpark clothing sale

Vinnies will hold a massive clothing sale in the car park of their Echlin Street shop in Townsville on Saturday 28 July.

The sale which starts at 9am and finishes at 4pm, features all items priced as low as $2 and customers can purchase six items for just $10.

Vinnies Townsville Retail Operations Manager Matthew Griffin said the event would not only offer local residents the chance to score a quality second hand item, but also help Vinnies give back to the local community.

“When you shop at Vinnies proceeds go back into programs and services that help people in need in the wider Townsville community,” he said.

“Vinnies shops play a vital role in helping us to give a hand up to struggling Queenslanders.”

Mr Griffin said there would be more than just clothing on offer and urged residents to bring the whole family down to find a bargain.

“This isn’t just a sale, it’s a fun event for the whole family, we will have popcorn, fairy floss, face painting, animal balloons and a sausage sizzle happening as well,” he said.

“This sale will be the perfect opportunity for people to gain quality used clothing at a very low cost.”

Vinnies has already provided assistance more than 9100 people in the Townsville region so far in 2018 and helped more than 26,755 people in the 2016-2017 financial year.
