Helpers needed in Nundah so Vinnies can continue its 'Good Works'

Vinnies Queensland's Nundah shop is currently on the hunt for more community minded people to volunteer.

Vinnies' Brisbane Diocese Regional Operations Manager Renzo Salvetti encouraged local residents to help the charity continue its good work in the community through volunteering in the retail shop.

"If you're considering a way to give back to the community, please consider volunteering at Vinnies,' he said.

"We need people to help us so we can continue to raise funds to help those who are doing it tough.

"We offer a fun and friendly team environment where you can be yourself while learning new skills and helping your local community.

"You don't need any retail experience as we provide on the job training and support.

"All the profits from Vinnies shops go back into helping people in need."

Roles include assisting customers, sorting of donations as well as pricing and display of items.

Volunteers are welcome to give just a few hours a week or come in everyday the shop is open if they are able and would like to.

Vinnies Brisbane Diocese assisted more than 36,700 people in 2017/2018.

A police check which is paid for by Vinnies Queensland is required for all volunteers who work at Vinnies and people interested in volunteering can call Fiona on 3260 7354 or visit <http://bit.ly/VinniesQLDVolunteer>

Vinnies Nundah shop opened at 9 Parkland Street in March.
