

Candra is 16 years old and in year 11. She likes computers and basketball at school. Her favourite subjects are computer technology and basic networking. Candra lives with her mother and wants to study at university, because she may be able to widen her knowledge about the subject that she likes. AAS funds were used for books, school fees and daily needs like having lunch.

Helen is 17 and in year 11. She loves the organization in school and the extracurricular activities. Helen studies Religious education, social science. Indonesian language, English and science. She lives with her mother and AAS funds were used for books, shoes, bag, travel to school and school fees.

Maria is 8 and in grade 3 and says she has kind-hearted friends and teachers. She lives with her parents and sibling and studies Religious education, English, thematic learning, Lampung dialect, information and communication technology, and Mandarin. Her AAS Funds were used for books and school fees.

Pedro is 16 and in year 10. At school Pedro likes sport activities and music. He studies Chemistry, physics, math, Indonesian language, Mandarin, physical education, biology. He lives with his parents and wants to be a successful person. AAS Funds paid for books, uniform, and contributed to internet access (AUD 9 per month), travel to school (AUD 35 per month) and school fees (AUD 35 per month).

Seker is 13 and in year 7. Seker loves the subjects in school – Mathematics, science, social science, Indonesian language, English, Pancasila and civic education, religious education, and physical education. He also loves to join in organised activities in school. Seker lives with parents and AAS funds were used for books, uniform, bag, shoes, school fees, and helped with travel to school (AUD 13 per month) and internet access.

Stevani is 13 and in year 7. He loves extracurricular activities at school and is studying Math, social science, natural science, Indonesian language, English, Pancasila and civic education, religious education, physical education. Stevani lives with his uncle and AAS funds helped with books, uniform, travel to school (AUD 18 per month), school fees and internet access for online study.

Yohannes is 15 and in Year 8. He loves football and is studying Math, Pancasila and civics education, social science, science, and English. Yohannes lives with mother and siblings and AAS funds were used for books, uniform, bag, shoes, travel to school (AUD 11 per month), school fees (AUD 9 per month), internet access for online study.

Gregorius is 8 and attends primary school. He has lots of friends and he loves playing with them. He can learn many things with the kindness of his teachers. Gregorius' subjects are Indonesian, English, Mandarin, mathematics, computers, religion, Javenese, PE, Civic Education, science, art culture and craft. His father passed away 2 years ago and now he lives only with this mother. His mother must work harder than before. He's missed his teachers and friends at school when school was closed for the pandemic. AAS funds have been used for school fees.

Keisya is 12 and attends secondary school. At school she enjoys science and singing. She lives with her parents and older sister. Her hobby is dancing and singing, and she has been in choir and dancing competitions. Keisya wants to continue to develop these talents as they help her feel like she is achieving something. AAS funds were used towards school fees.

Robertus is in year 12 and likes to play with his friends and study with them. He is studying religion, history, natural studies, English and Art and Culture. He lives with his parents and his sister. Robertus says his family is always happy and when there are problems they meet together with joy. AAS funds contributed to school fees.

Kevin likes his studies at his school and he has a good understanding with friends and teachers. Everyone is well and the facilities are good. He says he studies many subjects. One they must practice a lot is Pancasila [national philosophy of Indonesia]. His favourite subjects are law and religion. Kevin lives with his parents and an older and younger sibling. In the future he wants to be a chef because he likes cooking a lot. He used his free time in the pandemic to study cooking with his mother even though he already can cook several dishes - but he wants to be able to cook more!

Benediktus likes the playground at school, his friends and teachers - they make him happy. He studies sport, language and maths, but his favourite is sport. He lives with his parents. Benediktus wants to go to school to be a priest. His AAS funds bought him shoes, a bag and writing materials.

Zefanya's parents are teachers at her school. She's very happy there, she can play with her friends. She studies maths, religion, IT, English, Indonesian, Mandarin and Javanese. Favourites are maths, IT, Mandarin and English. Zefanya lives with grandparents. She wants to be a doctor or police officer – she wants to be a useful child for the nation and homeland.

Agatha likes her school because the teacher and her friends are nice and many of them help her study. The school is good, clean and neat. She studies maths, religion, IT, English, Indonesian, Mandarin and Javanese. Her favourites are maths, religion, outdoor ed, IT & Mandarin. Agatha lives with her parents and two younger siblings. She wants to study diligently so that when grown she can run a business or if not, be a teacher or a police officer.

Michael likes studying with his friends. He studies civics, natural science, social sciences, cultural studies, English, Indonesian, Javanese, Mandarin, maths, sport, it and religion. He like sport best. Michael lives with his mother and wants to go to Japan one day.

Kristo has many friends, a patient teacher and the school has good facilities. He studies natural science, social sciences, cultural studies, English, Mandarin, IT, outdoor ed, civics, art and culture. His favourite is outdoor ed and sport. He lives with his family. He wants better study facilities.