Taking Action

Below are some suggestions for practical activities which can be completed in class to help raise awareness about the issue of homelessness in Australia.

- Create a poster to raise awareness about homelessness – focus on a particular group (eg. Youth, elderly etc.).
- Write a letter to a local councillor/member of parliament persuading them to do something about the issue – include relevant facts and figures and use persuasive language techniques.
- Create a photo story illustrating the different types of homelessness in Australia
- Design a magazine cover for a social justice magazine which is focusing on the issue of homelessness
- Hold a class debate
- Create an infographic using relevant facts and figures and appealing visual techniques
- Create a slogan/catch phrase that could be used in an advocacy campaign to raise awareness on the issue of homelessness
